떡국 Tteokguk - Korean New year's day food

Tteokguk(rice cake soup) is a traditional Korean food that is customarily eaten for the new year.

The dish is a soup with thinly sliced rice cakes.

According to tradition, the Korean New Year is similar to a birthday for Koreans, and having Tteokguk is part of the birthday celebration.

Once you finish eating your Tteokguk, you are one year older.
